

The Harvest of Love

Thexalon (David Kleinschmidt)

Bring forth the ves- sels of mead and grain, Bring forth the fruits of the 7 sea- son, And let us break the bread to- ge - ther As we share in the 14 har- vest, the har- vest of love. In the ear- ly days the folk would All through- out the sum- mer's gol - den
And to what we owe this cy - cle 20 go And find their food in the for - est, And now with know- ledge from days As plants grew up and be- came our food, Our al- lied land- vae- tir song And how the fer- tile land feeds our folk? From Njord's child- ren, the 27 De- sir down Our hearth is well sup- plied!
watched the crop and with watch - ful wights were blessed.
Va- nir twins, Our flou- rish- ing fields grow full.
