

Balance

Thexalon

D G C/G G C D G D/A A

Ba - lance be - tween the light and dark of night Ba - lance of waking and sleep - ing time. Ba - lance of sum-mer sun and win - ter cold. Ba - lance the youth-ful strength and wis - dom old. If it is too dark plants can-not Each birth of ani - mal bless - es our Hail to the be - ings who do en -

6 D D G D A D

11 G A D D G D G

15 A Em A D A D D

grow, but if it is too light land will burn. Too much of world, but with ma - ny cou - sins food sup-plies will fail. Too man - y sure that nei - ther ex - treme takes o - ver our world. God - dess who clouds the leaves miss out on sun, but too much of sun the roots won't quench their kinds and one can't pro-pa - gate but all of the same they can't a - dapt to takes a jour-ney ev'-ry year to keep both the realms of life and death in

20 Em A G A

24 D D G D G A Em

thirst. No wind at all will keep the pol-len stuck, but too strong a change. Ta - ken in hunt some game will aid the wood, but too much and hand. Cy - cle of Ko - re to Des-po-ni - a and back to her

29 A D A D D Em A breeze and stalks will be knocked down. Rain wa - ter feeds the so - il and the stag will no lon - ger be there. We are the same so ce - le-brate the mo - ther as she's birthed a - gain. So too we ho - nor those who are re - crops, but flood wa - ters drown the veg-gies in the mud. births, but al - so re - mem - ber ho - nor to the dead.

33 G A D

born from that which seemed lost at past sea-son's end.