

Stand for Humanity

Dave "Thexalon" Kleinschmidt

Dm F C Am Dm F Am C Am

You have to stand up for_ your own hu-man-i-ty Stand for the val-ues that make us great and if you should fall then a - no-ther takes your place and a - no-ther and a - no-ther 'til the peo-ple are freed.

9 F Dm C Am C Dm/A A7 Dm

17 F Dm F Bb Gm A7

Here comes the harp-er of note and re-known to sing to the court of a migh-ty king but Here comes a war-rior who fought a val-ient bat-tle wounded and shamed for his in-ju-ry but Here comes the smith who was told to make the spears and read-y the war-riors to stand their ground but Here comes the far-mer who takes up the plough and push-es it to make the fur-rowed earth no

25 Dm C Gm Am Dm/A A Dm

all he will get is a crust of stale bread and dirt-floored hov-el to rest his head.
hard at_ work heal-ers help him to re-build and take up the fight for his peo-ple's tribe she will not sim-ply churn out the bor-ing blades but show skill-ful work with her art-ful flair.
fear of her fate when her legs be-gin to fail, she sac-ri-fic-es to feed the folk.

33 F Dm F Bb Gm A7

King thinks the in-sult will go_ un-challenged for none would dare to_ risk his wrath but Rea-dy to lead and_ take_ up the cause to act for the good of the folk and land he Add-ed de-signs scrolls and knots and sym-bols strong to make this her work that could be its kind be-Cel-e-brate mak-ing the things that_ grow and turn-ing the crops in-to tas-ty bread from wiel-ders of words al-ways get their re-venge so sa-tire a-bout the fool king did spread.

41 Dm C Gm Am Dm/A A Dm

proves no de-feat lasts for-ev-er you can get back up and keep work-ing_ to be free.
cause when hard times ar-rive_ from a-far the art tells you what you are fight-ing for.
seed by your hands and the sun_ and the rain make life that can grow in-to fer-tile farms.

(c) August 2026 David Kleinschmidt.

Distributed under Creative Commons Non-Commercial Share-Alike license 4.0.

Some Rights Reserved