

Summer Schottische

Dave "Thexalon" Kleinschmidt

3

F C F C

Dig the fur - row dirt, pull the weeds by root, re - Let the live - stock roam pas - tures grow - ing grass, let the Wa - ters from the sky, wa - ters from the ground, all the Fi - re from the sky, fi - re from the hearth, all the
 In our sa - cred space, fi - re, well, and tree, let us

3

F Dm G C

call - all the wis - dom from the far - mers of the past, put the cat - tle and the sheep eat the pow - er of the grain, get the wa - ters from the sea and the lakes and clouds, flow with fi - res from the pa - per and the wood and the coal, burn with give our thanks to po - wers of the land sky and sea, send them

5

F C F C

seeds in ground, get the wa - ter flow - ing down, get the poul - try fed, fill the wa - ter trough, try to sun and rain in - to streams down to sea, cir - cu - sun and spark in the cen - ter of the space, cook - ing gifts and love through the gates a - cross the bridge, as we

7

Gm C F

leaves and stems to grow in - to the food we eat. In the part - ner with the beasts to make the food we eat.
 la - ting with the fish that can be food we eat.
 all in - gre - di - ents in the food we eat.
 ce - le - brate the sea - son with the food we eat.

9

F Bb F Bb F Dm

sum - mer sun, in the sun's bright light leaves can pull down the growth of the 12

G C F Bb F Bb

sea - son's warmth, when the sweat pours down on the far - mer in the fields foc - us

15

F/C C F Bb F

en - er - gy on the crops that feed us all.