

The Battle of Summer

Thexalon

Em Bm Em G D
The bat-tle of sum - mer ap - proaches the ho - ly. The folk of the land fear the

4 Am7 Bm Em Bm Em
mon - strouseyed one. But then comes a he - ro to pre-vent the bur - ning, the

7 G C Bm Em Em arm of the bright one will re-store the ba - lance. Dark - est the ho - ur Ma - ny the skills of Rea - dy the forc - es

10 Am Em Bm Am Em Bm
af - ter the great war - rior lost his sword - hand but then ap - va - lor and wis - dom shown by the cen - tral door - way the work of came forth to meet the foes on that bloo - dy day their grea - test

13 Em D Am Bm Em
peared an un - like - ly lead - er sec - ret - ly born and trained for this task sword - play, thin - king of fid - chell art sense of harp - ing mark him a lead - er wea - pon the bur - ning eye - disk wield - ed by Ba - lor, e - ne - my king

17 Em Am Em Bm Am
Son of a cun - ning man and im - pri - soned mo - ther who met well Rea - dy for a - ny chal - lenge took up the man - tle of war - rior
Now the longarmed one struck him be - fore it took hold of his great

20 Em Bm Em D hid - den and to the sea where he learned the wise ways of fos - ter bur - den to free the peo - ple op - pressed by mon - sters with wea - pons al - lies and so flung back that beam towards the oth - ers des - troyed the

23 Am Bm Em
fa - - - ther wiz - ard of dark mists.
fear - - - some that could burn foes of the ho - ly tribe.