

The Longest Night

Thexalon

Yule - tide, the long - est night, we'll stay up sin - ging 'til the dawn. Yule - tide, with fi - re bright as we wait up for re - turn of sun. Stack the logs and crack the tin - der, Look out for the chas - ing wolves who Ev' - ry year we've kept the ef - fort Joined here in our night of dark - ness build - ing the fi - re for our vig - il. This is the place we'll seek to eat bright Sun - na's orb. This is the time when since the days be - fore our mem' - ry. This is the chance to pow - ers of the land are here. This is the folk who ga - ther a - round while we wait to see if sun ap - pears. 'Til that beam of they get their clos - est to catch - ing hold of long - time prey. Light the log for foll - ow in foot - steps of might - y peop - le from our past. Feel our peo - ple's keep to your ways and re - call your gifts with gor - geous praise. Let us give to light e - merg - es we will main - tain our care - ful watch to Ae - sir's might so we have the hope of red - beard's strength, the moth - ers pre - sent just out - side the fi - re - light they keep the flow ex - change be - tween the guest and host so

6

11

14

18

21
safe - guard our peo - ple through the night while keep - ing cold wind wis - dom of Frig, the wi - ly one - eyed, and ma - ny oth - ers watch our peo - ple keep - ing the luck of our folk who gath - er which is our role will no lon - ger mat - ter as friends we can sit

24
far a - - - way.
watch our garth.
here to - - - night.
by a fire.