The time of plague came right down up on us brought So hide at home if you can with stand it, stay In is o la - tion take up new crafts to Took up the call the hea - lers gath-ered know - ledge to And now we come be fore the al - tar to ter - ror and death to our land. The wis - est minds made far a - way from the town. The pres - sure mounts to keep the mind's bore - dom at bay. The hands make food to learn of the treat - ment or cure. Their minds turned to and sing of your un - seen deeds. That folk could make it hope in the hearth your flame brought warmth and light, bright fear in the hearth your flame brought hope and calm, bright work at the hearth your flame brought cre - a - tive joy bright strong in the hearth your flame brought hope so pure bright folk at the hearth your flame shines warmth and light, bright

Brigid the god - dess so wise.
Brigid the god - dess so warm.
Brigid the god - dess so strong.
Brigid the god - dess so kind.
Brigid the god - dess of fire.
