

We Share in the Feast

Thexalon

Cm Bb Fm Bb Eb

All a-lone you strug-gle to bring the fire-wood in But friends ap-pear and On your own you hun-ted through snow and scar-y woods But on-ly with some
 When you raise your voice— in prayer to migh-ty gods they hear your words sin-
 All a-lone you strug-gled to live through win-ter's night But with your friends and

6 Fm Bb Eb Cm Bb logs move and soon the space is warm. Lone-ly in the dark-ness with stran-gers could claim your tas-ty prize. Long the chase, and tir-ing, you -cere-ly and may come to your aid. But with friends and neigh-bors your stran-gers a par-ty has ar-rived. One by one we suf-fer and

11 Fm Bb Eb Fm Bb Eb

none to share your fire un-til the folk come sin-ging and soon the arms with hugs.
 tried to catch your prey but work-ing with your neigh-bors the ar-rows could strike home.
 songs be-come a roar, the shouts of wor-ship e-cho from walls and roof-top beams.
 strain to do it all but as a team we build up the things we need to thrive.

17 Eb Ab Bb Ab

In this hall the raf-ters were raised by ma-n-y hands as neigh-bors met and lif-ted each
 In this hall the stew-pot was filled by ma-n-y hands as stran-gers met and add-ed what
 In this hall the off-rings were made by ma-n-y hands as all who met and gath-ered each

23 Eb Bb Eb Ab Bb

beam up to the sky We placed each in the fram-ing and tied them all se-secure so each could then pro-vide With meats and herbs and tu-bers dark kale and on-ion bulbs we brought their heart and voice We sit to-get-her prais-ing the migh-ty and the wise so

29 Ab Bb Eb

now we have a shel-ter where we share in the feast.
 make a dish to sa-avor as we share in the feast.
 now we hope for bless-ings as we share in the feast.

(c) December 2025. David Kleinschmidt.

This work is licensed under CC BY-NC-SA 4.0. To view a copy of this license, visit <https://creativecommons.org/licenses/by-nc-sa/4.0/>